

Chapter 2

Wrap-up

Reflection

In this chapter, you learned about personal management qualities that Canadian employers value in their employees. Write a short paragraph about one personal management quality that you think you are strong in and one personal management quality that you would like to improve on. The personal management qualities that you looked at were the following:

- Managing time effectively
- Demonstrating a positive attitude
- Learning continuously
- Working responsibly
- Being creative and flexible
